Routines and Expectations

Correct uniform everyday

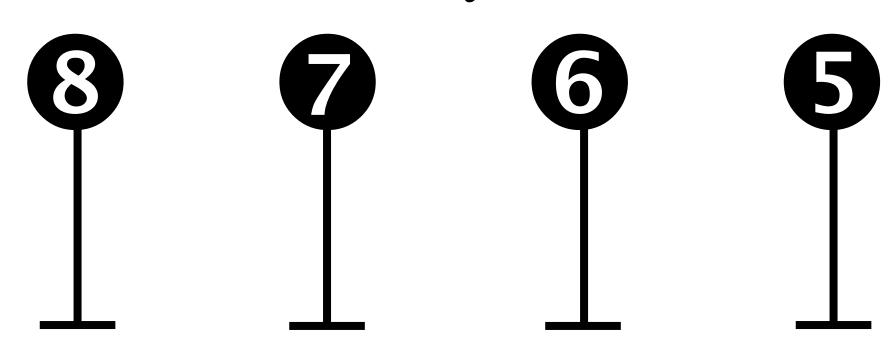

• PE kit on PE days — Y4 Monday and Tuesday

(If there are any changes to PE days, we will let you know via Class Dojo)

Children may come to school wearing PE kit on these days

- No jewellery, except for a watch and one pair of stud earrings
- Reading book and reading record to be in school everyday and taken home every evening

End of Day Routine

For the safety of all of our children, adults should wait behind the class markers. This allows the teachers to make visual contact with a parent and prevents the children from running off in different directions at the end of the day.

Children should NOT use scooters or bicycles on the school grounds.

Reading Spine

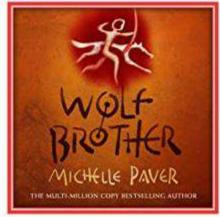

Class Reads

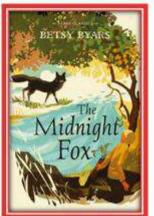

These are the some of the high-quality texts that children read throughout the year

Developing Reading Fluency Skills

Children are exposed to a wide range of age-appropriate, high quality texts in class.

They engage in a daily class read, which focuses on reading for pleasure.

We also teach a whole-class reading session on a daily basis with a more focused approach on specific skills:

- High quality discussion
- Adult modelling
- Vocabulary acquisition

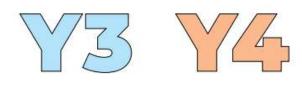

Writing

Spelling
Handwriting

Grammar

We write for a range of contexts, audiences and purposes for example persuasive letters, diary entries, non-chronological reports, etc.

The Writing Process

1. Read and Respond

Identify and discuss focus language, grammar, structure and organisational features in a model text.

6. Produce/Publish

Read aloud their own writing to a group or class with appropriate intonation to make meaning clear.

2. Prepare

Introduce the writing task identifying C.A.P. Discuss and share ideas. Gather content and language and teach key vocabulary.

Essential Steps

5. Evaluate & Edit

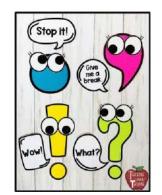

Evaluate effectiveness of own & others' writing. Proofread for spelling, punctuation and grammar errors.

3. Plan

Plan writing through discussing and recording ideas, considering paragraphing and cohesion.

4. Draft

Draft and write through composing and rehearsing sentences, experimenting with language and grammar. Organise paragraphs around a theme and consider organisational devices.

Writing skills

- Daily spelling lessons
- Weekly spelling application
- Daily handwriting practice

 Punctuation and grammar sessions throughout writing process

Concrete, Pictorial, Abstract approach

Concrete

During the concrete stage, pupils will have the opportunity to work with manipulatives and other physical objects in order to understand the mathematical concept. There will be times where this is not possible or effective; in these cases students should begin at pictorial stage.

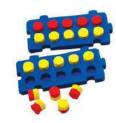

Pictorial

During the pictorial stage, pupils should be able to pictorially or diagrammatically represent ideas discovered during the Physical Stage. Again there may be occasions where this is not effective and so pupils should start at the abstract stage.

Abstract

During the abstract stage, pupils should no longer require a diagram to understand the concept. They should have formed comprehensive generalisations during which the underlying mathematics is fully understood.

Concrete

Pupils to use counters (or Base 10) to practically

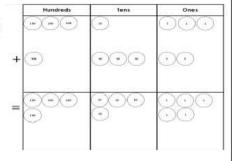

Pupils to draw counters without crossing out for regrouping.

Pictorial

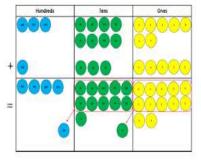

Abstract

Pupils to use expanded method with no regrouping before moving onto it.

Pupils to move onto trying compact, standard method ready for Year 4 when secure with the above. CPA not need between the two abstract models; ensure both abstract models are related to each other in teaching.

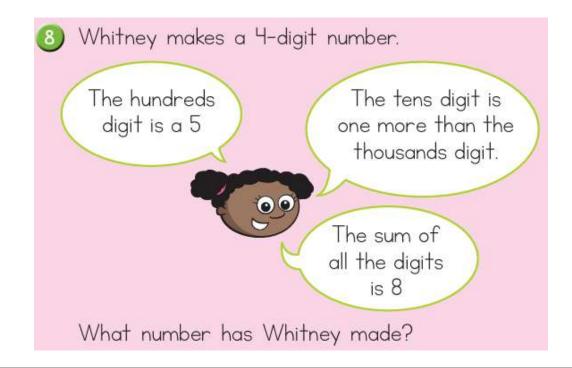

Application of Maths Skills

Two key elements of maths:

- Fluency
- Problem Solving and Reasoning

Times Tables!

Parent Guide

Throughout the year, the children have access to the Times Tables Rock Stars app. By the end of Year 4, the expectation is that all children will know their times tables.

The heat map below helps teachers gauge where intervention may be required.

We will be sending these home regularly so you can also keep track of your child's progress.

Statutory Multiplication Tables Check – Year 4

- Department for Education all children expected to master times tables by the end of Y4
- Rapid recall of times tables facts is essential for future success in mathematics

(More information will be given on this during Spring term.)

How can you ensure your child is successful?

- Make it fun!
- Play games
- Chant times tables
- Sing times tables songs

- Ask your child multiplication questions in random orders
- Apps MathsShed, Hit the Button, Maths Frame etc!
 - TTRS Soundcheck

Assessment

- Teacher assessment
- Reading termly NFER test and 1:1 reading with class teacher
- Writing evidence collected in books over the year.
- Maths regular pre and post assessments as well as a more formal Lingfield Education Trust termly assessment.

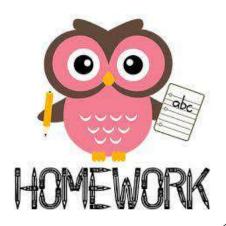

'Parental involvement in children's education from an early age has a significant effect on educational achievement, and continues to do so into adolescence and adulthood.'

"The Impact of Parental Involvement on Children's Education" published by The Department for Education (UK) - Crown copyright 2010.

How can parents help? Homework

- Please ensure that your child completes their homework tasks as carefully as they can.
- Tasks can be broken down into more manageable smaller steps so as to not overwhelm children.
- Homework must be returned to school no later than Wednesday each week.

Reading

- Children will be sent home with a reading book and their reading record everyday.
- Ensure that your child is reading regularly: ideally every night, but at least 3 times a week for at least 20 minutes.
- Remember to sign your child's reading record when you listen to them read.
 Children cannot sign this themselves.

Reading Record Comments

 Reading records are an excellent form of communication between home and school.

 Try to focus comments on what your child has found challenging or something they have achieved.

Suggestions for useful comments (by Ann Preston) 5/he enjoyed this book so much that s/he's really looking forward to another story about these people/this family. 5/he was stuck on and but has really remembered S/he knows all the words in this book except and S/he seems to be looking carefully at the beginning of the word for clues, but sometimes needs reminding to look at the endings. I'm encouraging her/him to guess/try the words, s/he's getting more confident at doing this. 5/he's making good guesses using the letters at the start, but not really understanding the story, so the guesses don't always make S/he's really getting used to reading past a word s/he doesn't know and then coming back to work it out. 5/he read all the book as you asked and then told me the story in her/his own words. S/he read this book silently as you told her/him to and only asked for the words and and 5/he pointed to the words as we read them together. We talked about the pictures and s/he named the characters on request. 5/he was very tired tonight and not concentrating very well, so:-We only did pages I read it to her/him We read a page each We talked about the pictures 5/he picked out words s/he knew S/he is not really enjoying these books and I'd appreciate some suggestions as to how I can deal with this.

Spellings

- By the end of Year 4, children are expected to know how to spell all the Year 3 and 4 common exception words, and to use these correctly in their writing as set out by the government.
 - They also need to know how to spell words containing various spelling patterns/rules.

Fundamental British Values

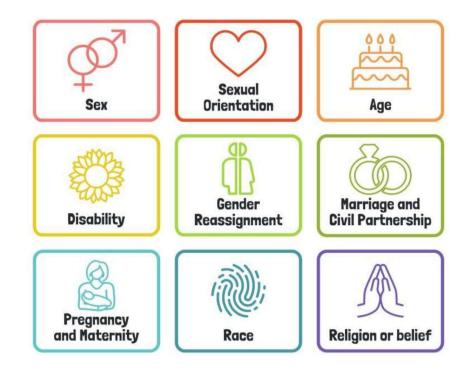

The five Fundamental British Values are Democracy, the Rule of Law, Individual Liberty, Mutual Respect, and Tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.

These values were first set out by the government in the Prevent strategy in 2011 to promote social unity and are a responsibility of all schools and state-maintained institutions to "actively promote".

Protected Characteristics

Protected characteristics are personal attributes that are protected by law from discrimination and harassment, particularly under the UK's Equality Act 2010.

There are nine protected characteristics: Age, Disability, Gender reassignment, Marriage and civil partnership, Pregnancy and maternity, Race, Religion or belief, Sex, and Sexual orientation.

Virtues

School virtues are positive character traits and moral values taught and promoted by our school to foster character development, support student well-being, and create a positive learning environment.

These virtues help students develop into well-rounded individuals who contribute positively to society, improve their academic performance, and build strong relationships.

Our school virtues are displayed in all classrooms and communal areas of school. They underpin all interactions in and around school and form an integral part of teaching and learning.
