1. Introduction

As a public body, our Trust must comply with the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED) and the Equality Act 2010 (Specific Duties and Public Authorities) Regulations 2017. This means we must publish:

- details of how our Trust (and schools) comply with the public sector equality duty
- our Trust-wide equality objectives

This policy aims to satisfy this expectation, whilst going beyond this to set the standard for all connected to our inclusive Trust.

Lingfield Education Trust Equality and Diversity Policy brings together all previous policies, schemes and action plans around equality. It includes all the protected characteristics covered under the Equality Act 2010 as well as other aspects which have the potential to discriminate against or to devalue any individuals within the Trust's community. We welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion.

The Trust is committed to its duties under the Equality Act 2010 and our PSED, specifically the principle of equal opportunities for all students, staff and members of each school's community (including parents/carers, visitors and partner agencies). The Trust is committed to the development of cohesive communities both within each school's physical boundaries and within local, national and global environments. The Trust embraces the aim of working together with others to improve children's educational and wellbeing outcomes, and notes the rights set out in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child.

The Equality and Diversity Policy is underpinned by:

- The Trust's Equality Objectives (included at the end of this policy)
- Each school's own Equality Objectives and associated action plan
- Each school's Accessibility Plan

The protected characteristics, which we must ensure are at the forefront of our inclusive practice are:

- Disability
- Gender identity
- Pregnancy and maternity
- Race
- Religion or belief
- Sex
- Sexual orientation
- Age (not applicable to pupils)
- Marriage and Civil Partnerships (not applicable pupils)

2. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to set out how practice and policies within the Trust have due regard to public sector equality duty and the need to:

- To eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation.
- To promote equality of access and opportunity within each school and its community.
- To promote positive attitudes to difference and good relationships between people with different backgrounds, genders, sexual orientation, cultures, faiths, abilities and ethnic origins.

3. Overall Guiding Principles of Our Practice

Principle 1: All learners are of equal value. We see all learners and potential learners, and their parents and carers, as of equal value.
Principle 2: We recognise and respect difference. Treating people equally (Principle 1 above) does not necessarily involve treating them all the same. Our policies, procedures and activities must not discriminate but must nevertheless take account of differences of life-experience, outlook and background, and in the kinds of barrier and disadvantage which people may face.
Principle 3: We foster positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of cohesion and belonging. We intend that our policies, procedures and activities should promote: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> positive attitudes towards disabled people, good relations between disabled and non-disabled people, and an absence of harassment of disabled people <input type="checkbox"/> positive interaction, good relations and dialogue between groups and communities different from each other in terms of ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin or national status, and an absence of prejudice-related bullying and incidents <input type="checkbox"/> mutual respect and good relations between boys and girls, and women and men, and an absence of sexual, homophobic and transphobic harassment. <input type="checkbox"/> positive attitudes and understanding of those women pregnant or during maternity.
Principle 4: We observe good equalities practice in staff recruitment, retention and development We ensure that policies and procedures should benefit all employees and potential employees, for example in recruitment and promotion, and in continuing professional development.
Principle 5: We aim to reduce and remove inequalities and barriers that already exist In addition to avoiding or minimising possible negative impacts of our policies, we take opportunities to maximise positive impacts by reducing and removing inequalities and barriers that may already exist.
Principle 6: We consult and involve widely People affected by a policy or activity should be consulted and involved in the design of new policies, and in the review of existing ones. We consult and involve all sectors of the school community.
Principle 7: Society as a whole should benefit We intend that our policies and activities should benefit society as a whole, both locally and nationally, by fostering greater social cohesion, and greater participation in public life.
Principle 8: We base our practices on sound evidence We maintain and publish quantitative and qualitative information about our progress towards greater equality.

Principle 9: Objectives

Every four years we formulate and publish specific and measurable objectives, based on the evidence we have collected and published. The objectives which we identify take into account national and local priorities and issues, as appropriate. We keep our equality objectives under review and report annually on progress towards achieving them.

We also ensure that equality and inclusive practice are embedded across all aspects of school life the Equality and Diversity Policy refers to the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, which includes recognition of a range of educational, wellbeing, and material outcomes.
